"WAR OVER BEFORE WINTER"

General Smith-Dorrien Expects Early Ending of Conflict

Montreal, April 28.—Gen. Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien, commander of the British Second Army in France, does not believe there will be another winter campaign. He made this statement in a speech to officers of the Canadian contingent just before that force was moved from Neuve Chapelle to Ypres, an extract of which has just been received here. General Smith-Dorrien said:

"No one can say definitely when the war will end. As you know, we are optimistic out here, and rightfully so. I do not say the war will end in one month or two months, but I think I can promise you that there will not be another winter campaign."

REPORTED THAT ALLIES WERE REPULSED AT DARDANELLES

British War Office Has No Report of Surrender

Berlin, via London, April 28.—A well authenticated report has reached Berlin that the left wing of the allies' landing force on the Gallipoli peninsula, numbering 12,000 men, with Gen. Liman von Sanders, the German commander of the Turkish forces, reported yesterday as holding out, has now surrendered to the Turks.

London, April 29.—The British war office official statement makes no reference to the reported surrender of allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Bruton went to Pittsburg, Kan., Thursday morning, Mr. Bruton's brother being critically ill.

RULES AGAINST MENACE

Demurrer Is Overruled by Judge Van Valkenburgh

Kansas City, April 28.—A demurrer to the indictments returned several months ago against the publishers of the Menace, an anti-Catholic weekly newspaper published at Aurora, Mo., were overruled by Judge Arba S. Van Valkenburgh in the federal court here today.

The case was then set for trial at Joplin during the June term of court, which begins the second Monday in June.

The individual defendants named in the indictments are, Wilbur F. Phelps, Bruce M. Phelps, Theodore C. Walker and Marvin Brown. The indictments charge that obscene matter was sent through the mails. Attorneys for the publishing company attacked almost every point in the indictments in the demurrer.

NO AUSTRIAN PEACE OFFER

London, April 28.—Answering a question in the House of Commons this afternoon Neil Primrose, under secretary for foreign affairs, declared that the foreign office had no official information to confirm the recent reports that Austria had approached Russia directly or indirectly for separate terms of peace.

SCOVILLE AT WEBB CITY

Webb City has just completed arrangements with Rev. Chas. R. Scoville to hold a series of revival meetings in that city next fall. Dr. Scoville, it will be remembered, held a very successful revival in Aurora last winter. The opening date has not been fully decided upon.

A tabernacle with a seating capacity of 5,000 will be erected.

WILL BUILD NEW CHURCH

The First Methodist Church of Monett are Planning to Build a New Church in a Short Time

Dr. W. D. Sidman, of Springfield, presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal Churches of this district, met with the official board of the local church Wednesday evening, at which time important business was transacted.

It was decided at this meeting that the rapid growth of the church made it necessary to have a new building in which to worship. A new brick and stone building will be erected on the site of the present church. It will be a handsome building and modern in every particular. They expect the main auditorium to seat 1000 people. The plans have not yet been completed but the church expects to begin operations as soon as possible.

Rev. J. F. King, who came here two years ago, has been wonderfully successful in building up the spiritual and financial condition of the church and he has the hearty co-operation of all his members.

PEIRCE CITY YOUTH IS FOUND DEAD BY ROAD

Macon, Mo., April 28.—Because of premonition that something had happened to her seventeen-year-old nephew, Cecil Truitt, Mrs. Josephine Cox started down the road east of Macon last night to meet him and found his body on the roadside.

Two dogs were guarding the body. Cecil had started out in the early part of the evening for the home of a neighbor to borrow a book. On returning home he was stricken with heart disease. Cecil's parents live at Peirce City, Mo.

I. O. O. F. CELEBRATION

The celebration of the 96th anniversary of the I. O. O. F. in America, by the lodges of the Barry County Anniversary Association at Washburn, Monday, April 26, was well attended and was one among the successful celebrations held by the association within recent years.

The program for the day was opened by a band concert by the Purdy band. Following came the march by the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs from the railroad depot to the Union church where the afternoon program was held. The program consisted of music by the band, singing of the anniversary anthem by a quartette, a duet, a short welcome address on behalf of the Washburn lodge and a response on behalf of the visiting lodges, followed by the address of the day on Odd Fellowship by W. T. Smith of Monett.

At night the Rebekah degree was conferred at the Odd Fellows hall. The Odd Fellows conferred three degrees of the subordinate lodge at the Woodman hall. The exemplification of the degree work of both orders was largely attended and well rendered.

At the business meeting of the executive committee held during the afternoon, S. R. Reynolds of Cassville was elected president and W. H. Martin of Cassville secretary-treasurer of the association for the next year. Cassville was selected as the place for holding the anniversary in 1916. —Cassville Republican.

GREAT JERSEY SALE

G. W. Scott will sell more high class Jerseys than has ever been offered in one sale in Southwest Missouri. You should attend and take home a foundation herd. This is the greatest chance you will have. We doubt if the people had such an opportunity to buy at their own price. Catalogue on request. d1 w2.

Orris Brite, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brite of LaRussell, will be married next Friday to Miss Laura Hegwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hegwer of Sarcosie. ## Prosperity Pudding

A GENEROUS AND NUTRITIOUS PUDDING may be made after the following recipe. The necessary ingredients are with the reach of every person.

Take two cups of thrift, three ounces of good common sense, pinch of wholesome apprehension, a measure of foresight, and a pint of precaution. Mix beat and stir well, adding extract of determination, and sifting in plenty of old-fashioned frugality. Spice with a good-natured grin.

This is not a hasty pudding, the baking is a progressive process and should be entrusted only to a specially safeguarded and constantly attended financial oven—this good, reliable bank.
